4. Health, Safety & Liability
   4.1. Participants acknowledge that participation in the Event is voluntary and that they are responsible for assessing and accepting the risks associated with their participation.
   4.2. To the extent permitted by applicable law, participants agree that the Organiser, Event organiser/planner, sponsors and supporting organisations shall not be liable for personal injury, accident, death, loss of or damage to personal belongings or other loss arising from participation in the Event or travel to or from the Event venue.
   4.3. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions excludes or limits any liability which cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.
   4.4. Participants are responsible for ensuring that their physical condition and health are suitable for their chosen activity. For safety reasons, persons with heart conditions, high blood pressure, epilepsy or other health conditions that may be affected by physical activity, persons who are feeling unwell, persons under the influence of alcohol or medication that may impair their ability to participate safely, and pregnant women are advised not to participate. Participants who have concerns regarding their health or suitability to participate should seek advice from a doctor or other suitably qualified healthcare professional before taking part.
   4.5. Where a participant displays symptoms including fever, cold or other symptoms which may affect safe participation, or has a measured body temperature above 37.5°C, the Organiser or Event staff may refuse or discontinue the participant's participation for health and safety reasons.
   4.6. Participants should undertake an appropriate warm-up before the activity and monitor their physical condition throughout. Participants experiencing pain, chest tightness, irregular heartbeat, unusually rapid breathing, dizziness, nausea or other discomfort should stop immediately and seek appropriate medical assistance.
   4.7. In an emergency, the Organiser may contact the emergency contact provided during registration and, where reasonably necessary, provide relevant information to medical, first-aid or emergency service personnel to protect the participant's health and safety.

5. Adverse Weather, Changes & Cancellation

5.1. The Event is subject to weather, road, venue and other environmental conditions.
5.2. If Tropical Cyclone Warning Signal No. 8 or above, or a Red or Black Rainstorm Warning is in effect at any time during the four hours before the scheduled commencement of the Event, the Organiser may cancel, delay, suspend or modify the Event or any part of it having regard to the weather, road and venue conditions and other safety considerations.
5.3. If an Amber Rainstorm Warning or other adverse weather condition occurs, the Organiser may determine whether the Event will proceed, be delayed, modified, suspended or cancelled after considering prevailing and forecast weather, road and venue conditions.
5.4. The Organiser may modify, postpone, suspend or cancel the Event or any part of it due to weather, safety, road or venue conditions, instructions from governmental or other relevant authorities, unforeseen circumstances, or other matters beyond the Organiser's reasonable control.
5.5. Where the Event is cancelled, postponed or materially changed, the Organiser will announce the relevant arrangements through such channels as it considers appropriate.
5.6. Unless otherwise announced by the Organiser, no refund, cash compensation or other compensation will be provided where the Event is cancelled due to the circumstances described above.

6. Personal Data, Photography & Video

6.1. Personal data provided by participants during registration and participation may be used for registration processing, identity and eligibility verification, issuing Ticket Vouchers or Admission Tickets, Event administration and operation, safety management, emergency contact and communications directly related to the Event.
6.2. Personal data will be handled in accordance with the applicable Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance and the applicable Personal Information Collection Statement and Privacy Policy of S^+ REWARDS/the Organiser.
6.3. Where S^+ REWARDS or the Organiser intends to use a participant's personal data for direct marketing, such use will be handled in accordance with applicable law and the relevant privacy arrangements, including obtaining any consent required under applicable law.

6.4. Participants acknowledge that photography, video recording or other visual recording may take place during the Event. By participating in the Event, participants agree that photographs, videos or other materials recorded during the Event containing their image may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be used by the Organiser and its authorised parties for Event documentation, publicity, promotional and marketing purposes without further remuneration.

6.5. Subject to the applicable Privacy Policy and Personal Information Collection Statement, personal data will be handled in accordance with the Organiser's applicable data-retention arrangements when it is no longer required for the relevant purposes and there is no legal requirement for continued retention.
